End of The Great War

- * USA enters the war in April 1917, angered by German submarine attacks against neutral Ships
- * Germans make final push, taking back Ypres, Somme & Passch
- * Germany running low on troops, food, and supplies
- * During final 3 months of war, Canada's troops very successful due to disciplined command of Arthur Currie
- * November 9, 1918: German Kaiser abdicated
- * November 11, 1918: Armistice signed at 11:00 a.m. in France
- * Canadian Private George Price is the last soldier to die on the Western Front - a sniper shoots him just before 11:00

Paris Peace Conference

- * January, 1919: Delegates from 27 nations meet in Paris to discuss peace terms
- * Borden fights for independent Canadian seat at the Paris Peace Conference (rather than British representation)
- * American President Woodrow Wilson proposes 14-point plan for peace
- * France and Britain want Germany to pay for war

Treaty of Versailles

- * Signed June 28, 1919 with 440 clauses:
 - * Germany must accept "War Guilt Clause"
 - * Germany must pay $30 billion in reparations
 - * Map of Europe redrawn (Germany loses territory)
 - * German army restricted to 100,000 soldiers with no U-Boats or air force

Canada also signs Treaty of Versailles, independently

Obviously, Germany was unhappy with agreement

The old empires...

EUROPE 1923

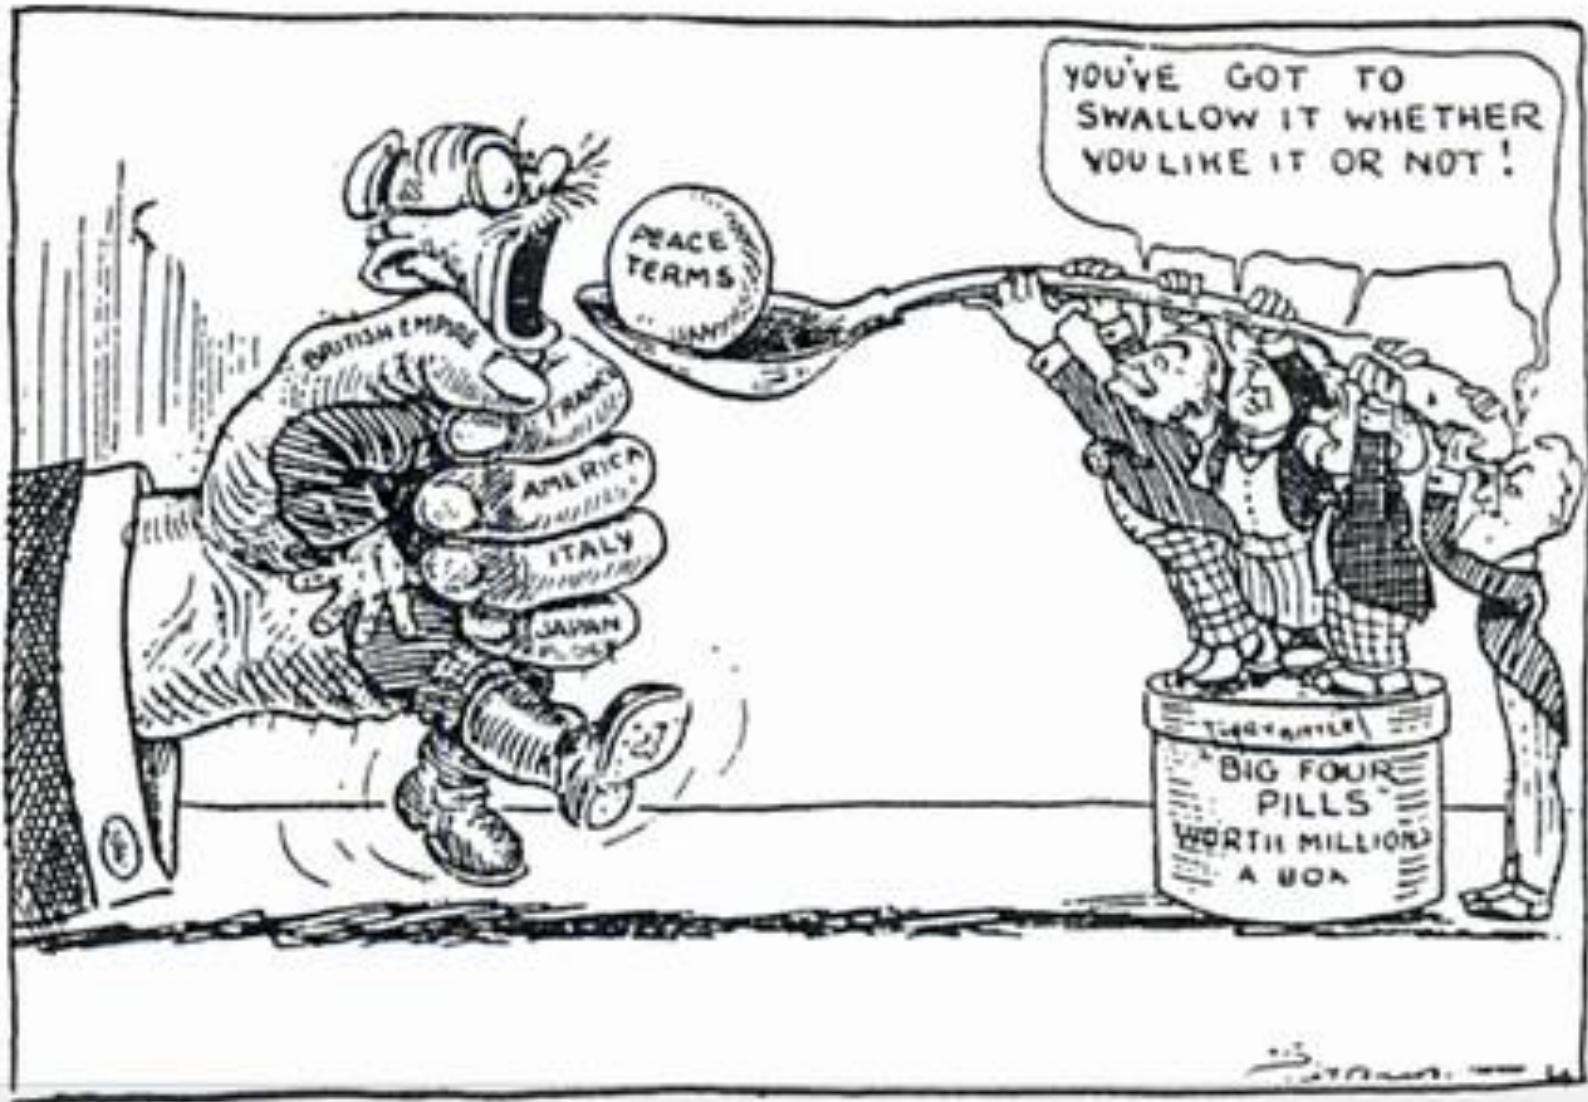

...became new countries

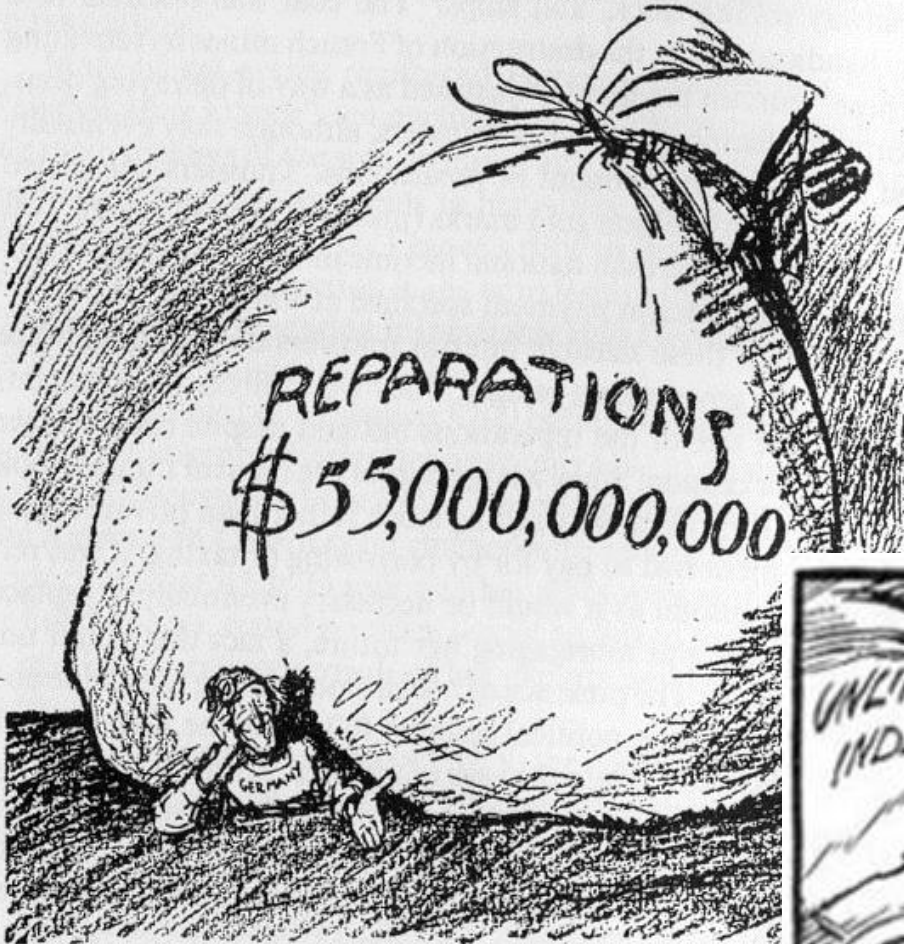

Territory Lost by Germany

Was Germany treated fairly?
