

The Trial of King Louis XVI: Defence

Instructions: you are a defence lawyer, which means you are on the side of the king (defending him)... you do not want him to be found guilty! In addition to reading out your script, you will also record the arguments of your fellow defence lawyers, as well as the opposition (the prosecution). Try to add some counter-arguments next to the points that the prosecution makes, as you are against them!

Defence Lawyers	Prosecution Lawyers